LEGISLATIVE AUTHORIZATION

Research and Marketing Act (Public Law 733, 79th Congress) approved August 14, 1946 includes Title III which provides:

"Sec. 301. In order to aid in implementing the research and service work authorized under titles I and II of this Act, and to assist in obtaining the fullest cooperation among Federal and State agencies, producers, farm organizations, and private industry, in the development of and in effectuating such research and service programs, and in order to secure the greatest benefit from the expenditure of funds, the Secretary of Agriculture shall establish a national advisory committee. The functions of such advisory committee shall be to consult with the Secretary of Agriculture and other appropriate officials of the Department of Agriculture, to make recommendations relative to research and service work authorized by this Act, and to assist in obtaining the cooperation of producers, farm organizations, industry groups, and Federal and State agencies in the furtherance of such research and service programs. The chairman of the committee shall be the Secretary of Agriculture or such other official of the Department of Agriculture as he shall designate. The committee shall consist of eleven members, six of whom shall be representatives of producers or their organizations. The committee shall meet at least once each quarter and at such other times as are deemed necessary. Members of the committee may not appoint alternates to serve in their stead. Committee members other than the chairman shall not be deemed to be employees of the United States and are not entitled to compensation, but the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to allow their traveling and subsistence expenses necessary in connection with their attendance at meetings called by him for the purposes of this section.

"Sec. 302. In the furtherance of the research and service work authorized by this Act, the Secretary of Agriculture may, in addition to the national advisory committee, establish appropriate committees, including representatives of producers, industry, government, and science, to assist in effectuating specific research and service programs."

The Act also provides in Sec. 9(b)(3):

"Sec. 9(b)(3) The funds . . . designated as the 'Regional research fund, Office of Experiment Stations' . . shall be used only for cooperative regional projects recommended by a committee of nine persons elected by and representing the directors of the State agricultural experiment stations . . ."

SCOPE OF ACTIVITY

As appropriate to its particular field each advisory committee considers and makes recommendations regarding the Production, Utilization and Marketing Research of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Marketing Service and Educational Work authorized by the Research and Marketing Act.

AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH SERVICE

Although the work considered by advisory committees is conducted in several of the Services of the Department, the Secretary of Agriculture has delegated to the Agricultural Research Service the "Administration of Title III of the Research and Marketing Act."

This responsibility is performed by a unit in the Administrator's Office. The address of the members of this unit is: Office of Administrator, Agricultural Research Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.
